

CALL FOR PAPERS

11th International Seminar of Fire Protection

The 11th International Seminar on Fire Protection will take place on June 8 and 9, 2010 during the International Trade Fair INTERSCHUTZ 2010 being held from June 6 to June 12, 2010, at Leipzig, Germany.

The seminar is entitled "Developments in Fire Risk Assessment and Fire Prevention". Major topics addressed will be

- Risk analysis and proactive fire prevention in complex building structures
- Sustainable construction and proactive fire prevention (e.g. the fire behavior of "natural" building materials, fire hazards due to improved insulation materials etc.)
- Fires caused by terrorist attacks (e.g. fire load analyses following terror attacks, identification of sensitive structures, consequences of improved risk analysis)
- Fire detection and early warning systems
- Prognosis techniques for risk analysis and fire scenarios

Researchers and practitioners are kindly invited to submit a one A4-page abstract (title, authors, affiliation, abstract text in Arial 12pt) to michael.neske@idf.uni-magdeburg.de.

After acceptance authors of selected abstracts will be invited to submit full papers.

Venue will be the Congress Center Leipzig CCL being situated at the Leipzig trade fair and exhibition centre. CCL is only a stone's throw away from the international airport Leipzig/Halle and directly connected to the city centre by tramway and to motorway A14 (exit "Leipzig Messe").
