

CARPET DESIGN AWARDS 2006

PRESENTED BY DOMOTEX, HALI & MODERN CARPETS+TEXTILES

Over the last twenty years, the handmade carpet industry has undergone a period of development and growth the like of which has not been experienced for over a century. Until recently a few companies have led the way in creating new standards for handmade carpets in terms of design and material quality, however now these standards are obvious throughout the industry. In order to celebrate these remarkable achievements, HALI joined forces with Deutsche Messe, organiser of DOMOTEX – World Trade Fair for Carpets and Floor Coverings, to launch the first Carpet Design Awards at DOMOTEX 2006 in Hanover.

In November a shortlist was created in eight categories including both traditional and modern designs, for whole collections and individual carpets, as well as rewarding innovation. The shortlisted entries were presented on a dedicated design stand at DOMOTEX for final judging.

The judges were: Ulf Moritz, textile designer and “Designer of the Year 2003”, Netherlands; Alexandra van der Sande of Cassina, Italy; Belkis Balpınar, textile artist, Turkey; Matthew Bourne, Christopher Farr Contemporary Rugs and Carpets, UK; Ferdi Besim of Adil Besim, Austria; Ron Stewart, an ex-buyer for Liberty’s London, UK; Dennis Dodds, architect and rug collector, USA, and Ben Evans, Editor of HALI and MCT, as well as DOMOTEX visitors, who also voted for their best-liked carpet from the shortlist. The winners received €1,000 and a trophy each. Here we present the prize-winners and runners-up in this special editorial section.
