

High-powered searches for a high-powered visit!

1.)
Enter your search term online.

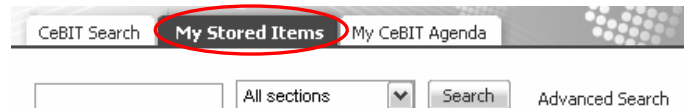

Saving search results is possible if you are logged in using your e-mail address and password. Not registered yet? You can quickly set up a new account under "New registration".

2.)
In the resulting results, you can select all or some of the items listed for printing and/or saving to your Stored Items.

3.)
You can also later decide to print basic listings from within your Stored Items.

You can also opt to add selected items to "My CeBIT Agenda", thus making it easy to plan which exhibitors, special displays and events you definitely want to check out at CeBIT.

4.)
Based on the items you have added to "My CeBIT Agenda", you can generate and print a custom map of the grounds showing where you need to go in order to see everything you've selected in a convenient order.
To view your personal foot map, just click on the button at the left.
