

Security and logistics

Stand security

Deutsche Messe provides overall security on the exhibition grounds. However, in the interest of protecting your stand and exhibits against theft, damage or industrial espionage, you are strongly advised to hire security guards/night watchmen from one of our approved security partners, who are well acquainted with on-site conditions. This is particularly important during the busy assembly and dismantling periods, but is also essential for safeguarding your valuable exhibits and other items during the hustle and bustle of the show.

Prices per man-hour in €
Weekdays	14.26
Sundays	21.39
National holidays	28.52
Nighttime surcharge (11 p.m. to 6 a.m.)	5%

We recommend ordering security services via OBS as early as possible. Beginning 48 hours before each event, the basic hourly rate goes up to € 16.91, due to the increased difficulty of finding personnel.

Transport and exhibitor insurance

Leave your worries at home and insure your exhibition stand, your exhibit materials and any other equipment by taking out a special transport and exhibitor insurance policy prior to the show. Deutsche Messe has negotiated a general policy with a reputable insurance company at special rates which are available to you via OBS.

The premium amount depends on the value of the items to be insured multiplied by a percentage based on the category of the insured items.

Protect yourself against the financial impact of unforeseen losses!
