

Additional information for participants:

1. Access to Congress Center and Exhibition Area:

Registered participants receive by surface mail two tickets to access the Congress Center and the Exhibition Area at the days of the symposium. The tickets are sent to participants after receipt of the registration fee.

If you pay cash at the registration counter you have to buy the ticket for the first day at the entrance to the exhibition. The amount will be compensated with the registration fee you will have to pay at the registration counter of the symposium.

The ticket enables you to use public transportation on all traffic means of the MDV public transportation company for a single ride to and from the exhibition centre. Look for the MDV sign at the transportation carriers.

2. Evening reception

The evening reception will take place in the historical restaurant "Auerbachs Keller" (Auerbach's Cellar) in the city centre of Leipzig. The restaurant is in walking distance from Leipzig Central Station. For getting a virtual tour see
