Ordering Conditions1. Services

Fachausstellungen Heckmann offers services under its Plants & Flowers section for rent or purchase, through its service partner.

1.1 Foliage plants

These are available for rent only. You may substitute the standard planter (white or terra cotta color) with one of your choice (e.g. ceramic, stainless steel, colorful, etc.) by placing your order under the "Planters and soil cover" page. Alternatively, you may request a quotation from our service partner for foliage plants of other sizes not included in our order form.

1.2 Bouquets of flowers and other floral arrangements

These are available for purchase only. Our service provider will be pleased to send a quotation for any custom arrangement with your preferences for color, style, size, and floral combination.

2. Special requests

We are always open to special requests concerning any of our goods, especially vases/bowls for counters and the floor. Please state your special requirements in the Comments field. If you require items not in our standard line of products, such as other foliage plants, planters, and decorative items or flowers/plants for your stand, please describe them in the Quotation for special requests section. Our service partner will contact you and accordingly submit a quotation.

For all quotation requests: our service partner will attempt to fulfill special requests, depending on availability of seasonal flowers/plants, etc. Exhibitors have no legal right to fulfillment!

3. Orders

Fachausstellungen Heckmann renders services through its service partner in line with the order placed in our Form 5.96. We cannot guaranty that late orders will be fulfilled as requested. Fachausstellungen Heckmann and its service partner shall not be liable for rendering the contractual services, in the event of circumstances beyond their control, operational disruptions, etc.

4. Delivery

We shall make every attempt to deliver orders on/at the requested date/time, whereby exhibitors shall have no legal claim upon non-fulfillment. Goods ordered without a specified delivery date/time shall be delivered on time before the event starts. Upon delivery, the service partner shall not be responsible for verifying the identity/authorization of any person met at the stand, and may deliver the order at an unoccupied stand. Fachausstellungen Heckmann shall not be liable for delivery, if hindered by events beyond its control.

5. Special conditions for rentals

5.1 Rented goods are provided only for the contractual purpose and duration (max: until the event is over). If rented goods are not ready for pickup by the service provider after the event is over, we shall bill the renter for extra costs incurred, unless the rental period was contractually extended in writing. The right to claim further damages incurred by the service partner shall remain in force.

5.2 Unless otherwise agreed upon, the rented goods shall be picked up as soon as possible after the event is over, whereby the renter shall ensure that the goods are ready for pickup.

If the renter causes a delay in delivery or pickup of the rented goods, Fachausstellungen Heckmann reserves the right to bill the renter for any extra costs incurred. The exhibitor shall be liable for the rented goods from the time of delivery or handover at the stand until pickup by the service partner, even if the stand is unoccupied. The exhibitor shall be liable for damage to or loss of the rented goods, up to their replacement value. Fachausstellungen Heckmann reserves the right to claim damages from the exhibitor for any default/delay and/or for non-payment of the rental charge. The exhibitor's liability shall expire three hours after the event is over, unless the rented goods were not ready for pickup or the parties agreed upon a different pickup time.

5.3 Fachausstellungen Heckmann and its service partner shall not be liable for property damage or bodily injury arising from or in connection with use of the rented goods, unless the damages are attributable to intent or gross negligence on the part of Fachausstellungen Heckmann.

6. Complaints

You shall ensure that the ordered goods are faultless and complete when delivered. You must file a complaint in writing to Fachausstellungen Heckmann and the service partner within 24 hours of delivery, otherwise the goods shall be deemed faultless, and no later claims shall be accepted.

7. Substitution

If a claim is justified, Fachausstellungen Heckmann shall have the right to remedy the problem or deliver goods of equivalent or higher value at no extra charge. The contract may be revoked or the price reduced only if an attempt at remedy fails.

Pricing terms

Unless otherwise specified, prices are net in EUR and subject to the statutory VAT. We reserve the right to pass along any rate changes or price adjustments made by our service provider.

Billing

Fachausstellungen Heckmann shall bill you for the services rendered.

All prices cover rental over the duration of the event and include delivery and pickup, whereby extra charges apply to extended rental periods.

Cancellation terms

You may cancel an order up to ten (10) days before the event starts at no cost. Later cancellations will be charged the full purchase and/or rental price. A respectively reduced charge will be accepted, if the exhibitor is able to prove that Fachausstellungen Heckmann actual loss is less than the applicable charge.
